

COOPERATION FRAMEWORK AGREEMENT

BETWEEN

THE UNIVERSITY OF TURIN

AND

SHIRAZ UNIVERSITY OF ARTS

The University of Turin, represented by the Rector, Prof. Gianmaria Ajani,

and

Shiraz University of Arts, represented by the Vice-Chancellor, Dr. Alireza Askari Chaverdi

in order to increase and to deepen relationships among their two institutions, agree with the following conditions:

Art. 1

The University of Torino and Shiraz University of Arts agree on the importance and the usefulness to establish cultural, scientific and didactic relationships, in order to assert and to consolidate the ties of friendships between the two Institutions and between their countries. The present agreement of cooperation, therefore, contributes to the development of teaching and scientific research.

Art. 2

The present agreement defines the beginning of cooperation between the two Universities in all fields and disciplines of common interests. It will be articulated, concretely, in specific executive protocols, in order to establish didactic-scientific cooperation's scopes, the modalities of its development, the liability and the expected results. Each university will designate a project manager who will report to the competent academic authorities.

Art. 3

The cooperation among the two universities provides for the joint and connected executions of research and teaching programs. It will be realized in the following ways:

- by exchanging academics, researchers, technical-administrative staff and students;
- by realizing joint research projects of common interest;
- by exchanging information, scientific publications and other scientific and didactic material of common interest on both institutions' side.
- by joint initiatives, such as seminars, lectures etc.
- by giving the possibility to use the research equipment and by giving free access to the facilities of both institutions.

Art. 4

Within the limits of regulations in force in each country, the parties agree to find the financial means necessary to reach the above mentioned objectives. The expenses will be jointly identified and will not be charged to the department/laboratory directly involved in the present agreement, unless specific funds from private or public institutions are available. The parties agree to grant logistic support to the visitors.

Art. 5

Each person involved in all foreseen activities of this agreement has to provide himself with a suitable insurance covered by the Institution of the origin. To the academics, researchers and students that will benefit from this protocol will be ensured medical assistance, in the limits of the agreements concerning the reciprocal guarantees and assistance existing between the respective countries.

Art. 6

Unless otherwise agreed, the parties will jointly own the technological and scientific results obtained within the present cooperation program. They undertake to protect and exploit them, according to the industrial laws and regulations in force in both Institutions. In order to permit an easier negotiability of the results obtained, each party undertake to prevent any claim of rights by its personnel or by persons in contact with the Institution.

Art. 7

The present agreement will be of 5 (five) years duration, starting from the date of the last signature by the directors of the contracting Universities and after the approval of the competent academic authorities. Any modification of the present agreement requires the written approval of the parties. The present agreement could be renewed, subject to the written approval of the academic authorities. In the case of a decision not to renew the agreement, the pattern of exchanges within the final year of the agreement shall be such as to equalize exchanges over the entire period of the agreement.

Art. 8

The present agreement is written exclusively in English and in three copies. They will be kept with each Academic Institution.

Torino,

19 GEN. 2015

University of Torino

The Rector

Prof. Gianmaria Ajani

A large, stylized handwritten signature in black ink.

Shiraz University of Arts

The Vice-Chancellor

Dr. Alireza Askari Chaverdi

ASKARI

A smaller handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'ASKARI'.